

Barracudas dominate annual meet, Freeport Aquatic second, Swift 3rd girls' division with 59 points. She won over Keianna Moss of the Barracuda, who had 42 for second place.

CUDAS FROM PAGE 1

Noah Albury took another title out of New Providence as he carried the 11-12 boys' crown to Abaco with his total of 49 points. Erald Thompson III of Swift Swimming was the runner-up with 41.

Anya MacPhail defeated her Barracuda teammate Katherine Slatter 49-48 in a close match-up for the 13-14 girls' divisional title.

DaVante Carey, representing Swift Swimming, made sure that the 13-14 boys' title didn't go to Grand Bahama as well with Lamar Taylor of Freeport Aquatic. Carey won 61-56 over Taylor.

Barracuda's Kaitlyn Slatter was six points better than Jasmine Gibson of the Grand Bahama Tritons as she won the 15-and-over girls' title 42-36.

And Joshua Murray of the Barracuda and Darren Laing of the Grand Baham Tritons collected 50 points each to seal a two-way tie for the 15-and-over boys' title. Tenajh Gaitor of the Barracuda Swim Club was third with 44.

BEST EFFORT: Swimmers compete in the Barracuda Swim Club's Annual Leno Corporate Services Invitational Swim Meet at the Betty Kelly Kenning National Swim Complex on Friday and Saturday. The Barracudas dominated the meet with a total of 1,279.50 points to distance themselves from nearest rivals - visiting Freeport Aquatic Club - who took 495.50 points back to Grand Bahama. Swift Swimming rounded out the top three with 434.50.

Photos: Terrel W Carey/Tribune Staff

